AACR conference participation · 2005

Historical record excerpt | Prepared November 3, 2026

Source: letter dated December 28, 2005, from Margaret Foti, Chief Executive Officer, American Association for Cancer Research, addressed to Doug Liles. The following is an image excerpt of its opening paragraph.

Thank you for participating in the AACR Special Conference, "Cancer, Proteases, and the Tumor Microenvironment", held November 30-December 4, 2005 in Bonita Springs, FL. Your active participation contributed to making this conference a success.

Accessible transcription: "Thank you for participating in the AACR Special Conference, 'Cancer, Proteases, and the Tumor Microenvironment', held November 30–December 4, 2005 in Bonita Springs, FL. Your active participation contributed to making this conference a success."

What it establishes: participation in this conference. The remainder of the letter invites a membership application; it does not confirm membership.

Selected excerpts only. Personal contact details, signatures, and unrelated material are omitted. Originals retained in the private archive. Historical participation does not imply current affiliation or institutional endorsement.